

Gracepath: Biblical Womanhood
Fall 2011/Spring 2012
Homework Assignment #17

In anticipation of our next meeting, we've prepared four daily assignments. Each day, you'll read a short portion of the Bible and answer two or three questions. Since time spent in God's word is best when it is conversational (God speaks to you, you respond) we've included a prayer prompt as well.

Day #1

Read James 1:22-25

In what ways can people who study the Bible deceive themselves?

What is the antidote for that deception?

Why would someone listen to the word, but not do what it says?

Is that ever true of you?

Ask God to show you areas of your life where you know the truth, but fail to act on it.

Day #2

Read James 1:22-25

According to verse 25, what does the law give?

Do you think of the law as giving freedom or taking it away? Why?

How could this idea affect your desire to do what the Word says?

Ask God to show you the freedom His law gives and how living outside His law limits your freedom.

Day #3

Read Ephesians 5:15-17

This passage contrasts wisdom and foolishness. What evidences of wisdom are listed?

How would the meaning be changed if Paul said, "Be very careful, then, how you think"?

What does it mean to be careful how you live? ... to make the most of every opportunity?

Ask God to show you opportunities you are missing to live wisely. Thank Him for the wise counsel of His Word.

Day #4

Define “consider” using a dictionary or thesaurus.

Read Hebrews 10:24-25

What are we told to consider in this passage?

If wisdom is about how we live and treat others, how do we grow in wisdom according to this passage?

Do you regularly meet with other people to get their input on how you live? Why or why not?

Praise God for the people in your life who care enough about you to spur you on toward love and good deeds.
