

Gracepath: Biblical Womanhood
Fall 2011/Spring 2012
Homework Assignment #20

In anticipation of our next meeting, we've prepared four daily assignments. Each day, you'll read a short portion of the Bible and answer two or three questions. Since time spent in God's word is best when it is conversational (God speaks to you, you respond) we've included a prayer prompt as well.

Day #1

Read Titus 2:3

What character qualities should be demonstrated by "older women"?

Do you intend to be an older woman someday? 😊

What area of character do you need to focus on right now?

Pray that God would give you a vision of the godly "older woman" he wants you to become.

Day #2

Read Titus 2:3:5

Make a list of things older women are to train younger women to do or to be.

Why would women need training in these things?

In what area do you need training? Who is training you?

Ask God to show you godly women in your life whose input you need. Ask Him to make you available and open to that input.

Day #3

Read Titus 2:3-5

What is the difference between “teaching” and “training”?

Think of an older woman who has trained you in life. What made you open to her input?

To whom are you an “older woman”? Name several women you know who are younger than you.

How can you cultivate the kind of relationship that would cause them to listen to you?

Ask God to show you women in your life who need your relationship and experience.
Ask Him to use you to Nurture the Next Generation both inside and beyond your family.

Day #4

Read Titus 2:3-5

What is the result of godly older women training younger women in godliness?

Do your relationships with other women make God look good...or bad?

God's preferred method for training His people is relational, not informational. Thank Him for the people in your life who train you in godliness, and those he allows you to train.
